Binder Participation on IE Expo Shanghai, China

Presented by IFAT CHINA + EPTEE + CWS

From 13 to 15 May 2013 was held the IE Expo, one of Asia's biggest environmental technology exhibition, in Shanghai, China. With more than 30.000 visitors from 67 countries and 834 exhibitors from 28 countries the exhibition showed remarkable growth compared to last year.

Binder took part on the joint booth of German Water Partnership and can only confirm the growing interest in future oriented environmental technologies on the Chinese and Asia markets. We thank all the numerous visitors for their interest and the promising discussions on future opportunities in China and Asia. After all we are confident in a sustainable further business development for Binder in this region.

Pledged to process optimization and reduced energy consumption, Binder Instrumentation Trading (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. will continue to offer equipment and concepts all over China and strive to maintain highest levels of customer satisfaction and excellence.
